

Here is a detailed and comprehensive list of mandatory compliance requirements that an application's privacy policy must address under the Pakistan Data Protection Law (PDPL):

- **International Data Transfers****:

- Incorporate user consent and protection measures for any international data transfers.

- **Data Breach Notifications****:

- Establish clear procedures for notifying users and authorities in the event of a data breach.

- **User Rights****:

- Explicitly state the rights of users to access, correct, and delete their data.

- **Consent Mechanisms****:

- Implement explicit consent mechanisms, including options for users to withdraw consent for data processing and sharing.

These points should be clearly addressed in the privacy policy to ensure compliance with the PDPL.
